Report

The Faculty Orientation Program was organized in Asian Institute of Pharmacy with the aim of familiarizing faculty members about policies, procedures, academic culture, and responsibilities of the institution. The program was designed to provide guidance, develop teaching competencies, and encourage commitment toward academic excellence.

The program commenced with a warm welcome and an inspiring address by Dr. K.R.Dandgval, who emphasized the institution's commitment to excellence in education and the important role of faculty. They discussed the institution's goals, values, and the road ahead, encouraging faculty to align personal growth with institutional development.

Faculty member of college conducted an interactive session on innovative teaching strategies, use of tools and outcome-based education (OBE).

The main aim of the program was to introduce the institutional values, goals, and academic structure. To familiarize faculty members with teaching methodologies, assessment procedures, and research opportunities. To build professional relationships among faculty members across departments. To encourage a collaborative and student-centric teaching approach. To discuss roles and expectations from the faculty in academic and administrative areas.

Guidance to Faculty members by Principal Dr. K.R. Dandgval.
